MONGOLIA IS ASHORE AGAIN

CHINESE SOLDIERS TO HELP PORTUGUESE

RUSSIAN SQUATTERS EMBARRASS RAILWAY

The Oahu Railway and Land Co. is thinking of ejecting the Russians still camped on the railroad property beyond Iwilei, on the stretch to the quarantine island, but whether they have the right to force them off or will have to bring suit in ejectment, is a question that is agitating the railway interests.

Those actually residing on the ground are chiefly women and children, the men, or most of the immigrants who refuse to go to work on the plantations, having secured some kind of temporary work around town.

It seems that, in the eyes of the law, the Russians at Iwilei are squatters and therefore have certain rights within the law; that they cannot be forced off the land, but that the owners of the land, the Oahu Railway and Land Co., will have to go to court to get them off.

The camp is a hot house for disease and is becoming a danger to the community. The board of health wants to move them and the railway people want to move them, but just what method is to be adopted is still undetermined.

COL. MILES HAS ARRIVED

Arrangements are now completed for the visit of Colonel Charles Miles, who is in charge of the Salvation Army work for the Pacific Coast Province, which includes Hawaii.

The Colonel arrived in the Sierra this morning and will leave in the evening in the Claudine for Walluku, where he will conduct services in the Army hall and in the different churches on Maui. Afterward Col. Miles will proceed to Hawaii and Kauai, visiting Honokaa, Hilo, Koloa and Waimea, to hold meetings in each place and inspect the conditions of the Army work.

In Honolulu the Colonel will conduct a series of meetings in connection with the celebration of the fifteenth anniversary of the Salvation Army's advent on the Islands, commencing on Saturday, August 6, when a great reception will be given him in the Army hall at King and Nuuanu streets, at which all the officers from the various posts on the Islands will be present.

On Sunday morning, August 7, he will speak in the Methodist Church, in the afternoon he will address the children of the Army Sunday school, and in the evening will preach in the Christian church. Monday he will hold three sessions of officers' councils, and on Tuesday evening will conduct a great public wedding ceremony of two prominent Army officers in the Army hall.

The Colonel is a fluent speaker and has wide experience in Salvation Army work in different parts of the world. During his visit he will go minutely into all details of the Army operations on the Islands.

Engineers Discuss Bitulithic Pavement

A paper on bitulithic pavement, prepared by C. O. Warren of Boston while visiting this city a few months ago, was read by Joseph A. Gilman before the Hawaiian Engineering Association at the College of Hawaii last night. Samples of the pavement cut from streets in Boston and Portland, Ore., were exhibited. There was a general discussion of bitulithic and other paving material, in which Manager C. G. Ballentyne of the Rapid Transit Co., Mr. Southworth, Mr. Rowell and others gave considerable information. Mr. Ballentyne showed great confidence in the bitulithic and told of its merits from personal observation on the mainland.

At the close the meeting seemed to be completely in favor of the paving of Fort street with that material, although no vote was called on the question. A vote of thanks to Mr. Warren for his paper was passed.

Vice President Robert J. Pratt was in the chair and there was a good attendance of members.

VOTE WHERE YOU VOTED LAST TIME

Secretary E. A. Mott-Smith is getting out a new edition of the election laws and also a new bunch of instructions to inspectors of election, all to cover the coming general elections in November. Incidentally, Mott-Smith will probably be absent at the next general election, when it will be up to the chief clerk of the governor's office to run the election. Mott-Smith will be away on a very much earned vacation.

In regard to voting at the plebiscite on July 26, as to prohibition or anti-prohibition, it must be borne in mind that men are to vote where they voted last time.

As to the general elections in November they must re-register.

Nearly Met Trolley Death

Dr. Norman Fairweather, accompanied by his sister and two of her girl friends, came very near meeting death late yesterday afternoon on the corner of Young and Alexander streets, when car number 5 of the Rapid Transit Company came down the grade on Alexander street bound toward Pawa junction.

Dr. Fairweather was driving his Chalmers-Detroit car, number 444, out Young street toward Walkiki, when the trolley car caught his machine, tearing away part of the fender and running board on the left side and smashing three or four spokes in each of the left wheels. The fender of the car dragged the machine along the track for a distance of nearly thirty feet before it was brought to a standstill.

Dr. Fairweather suffered slight bruises on his legs but refused to go to the hospital when the patrol wagon arrived on the scene. The ladies on the car were uninjured but suffered a good deal from shock. T. Eckelmann was motorman and W. R. Lindley conductor of the car which caused a few dollars damage to the automobile, but fortunately did not kill any of the people in the car.

This is the second accident that the doctor has met with at the hands of the Rapid Transit Company. The first accident happened on Beretani street near the high school when excavations were being made for the new switch just Walkiki of the school when his machine fell down in a hole alongside of the track.
